

DEBT_COUNSEL_QUEUE_V1 -- every open GLOSS-FOR-COUNSEL item in debt-demo-v1.0

Prepared 2026-09-05 under the LOCK directive, Phase LOCK item 3. Packaging only; nothing here is resolved.
Copyright 2026 Andrew M Cohen. Apache 2.0.

What this is. Every proposition in the 19 frozen v1.0 nodes that rests on CASE LAW or practice rather than on a quoted, live-verified statutory or regulatory text. Each was encoded as a source_tier C note during rounds 38-46 and carries a GLOSS-FOR-COUNSEL classification in rules/debt/validation/stage_b_dispositions.json. Items from round 38's original list of 11 that were later anchored to a quoted primary text (TransUnion, Rotkiske, Texas temporary absence under Prop. Code 41.003, turnover of paid wages under CPRC 31.0025, Rosenthal reach under Civ. Code 1788.2/1788.17) are NOT here -- they dropped off the counsel list in round 39.

How to use it. One ruling per item: CONFIRM (the proposition stands as encoded; the note is re-tagged counsel_confirmed in v1.1), STRIKE (remove the proposition; the node reverts to "not encoded, refer"), or MODIFY (write the corrected proposition in the box; it is encoded in v1.1). Because v1.0 is frozen, no ruling changes v1.0 content; rulings are applied in the v1.1 content round that precedes tier promotion (Phase LOCK item 5). Case citations resolve on CourtListener (see the resolution note at the end); none was read in full by Cowork -- confirming the PROPOSITION is what a CONFIRM means.

Risk posture key. If wrong, direction: DD = the encoded proposition, if wrong, would tell a consumer they are safe / have no claim / are out of time; OC = overstates the consumer's claim or protection (a lawyer would catch it before filing); N = neutral / procedural.

Count: 27 items. Federal 9 · California 9 · Texas 9. Estimated session: 2-3 hours with Claude.

FEDERAL

F-1 · FDCPA-UNFAIR-PRACTICES-CATALOG-1692f · Envelope-marking rule (round 38, ledger -02)

Encoded proposition. Catalog item (8) -- any language or symbol on an envelope other than the collector's address and, if not indicating collection, its business name -- is stated as the rule, with a caveat that the Eighth Circuit reads a "benign language" exception into 1692f(8) (Strand v. Diversified Collection Service, 380 F.3d 316 (8th Cir. 2004)) while the Third Circuit applies the text literally (Douglass v. Convergent Outsourcing, 765 F.3d 299 (3d Cir. 2014)), and that after TransUnion a bare visible account number may not support Article III standing. The note also cites Daubert v. NRA Group, 861 F.3d 382 (3d Cir. 2017), with Douglass.

Authority relied on. 15 U.S.C. 1692f(8) (quoted, verified); Douglass; Daubert; Strand; TransUnion v. Ramirez (quoted syllabus).

If wrong, direction: OC (Third Circuit reading encoded as the default).

Ruling: [] CONFIRM [] STRIKE [] MODIFY: _____

Notes

F-2 · FDCPA-UNFAIR-PRACTICES-CATALOG-1692f · Pay-to-pay / convenience fees (round 38, ledger -03)

Encoded proposition. Catalog item (1) (collection of any amount not expressly authorized by the agreement or permitted by law) is caveated: courts are split on whether an optional, separately-agreed "convenience fee" for paying by card or phone is an "amount ... incidental to the principal obligation" barred by 1692f(1); the note does not present it as a categorical violation and asks whether the fee was optional, disclosed, and agreed at payment. The note names no case. For the session: the Fourth Circuit's Alexander v. Carrington Mortgage Services, 23 F.4th 370 (4th Cir. 2022) (covered), and the CFPB's June 2022 advisory opinion on pay-to-pay fees (covered; agency guidance) are the usual authorities on the "yes" side.

Authority relied on. 15 U.S.C. 1692f(1) (quoted); the split is asserted in the note without citation.

If wrong, direction: OC.

Ruling: ☐ CONFIRM ☐ STRIKE ☐ MODIFY: _____

Notes

F-3 · FDCPA-UNFAIR-PRACTICES-CATALOG-1692f · Discharged-debt collection and the FDCPA (round 46, ledger -05)

Encoded proposition. Collecting a debt discharged in bankruptcy violates the discharge injunction (11 U.S.C. 524(a)(2), quoted), enforced by contempt in the bankruptcy court; whether the same conduct ALSO supports an FDCPA claim is a circuit split -- the Ninth Circuit holds the Bankruptcy Code precludes it (Walls v. Wells Fargo Bank, 276 F.3d 502 (9th Cir. 2002)), the Third and Seventh allow it (Simon v. FIA Card Services, 732 F.3d 259 (3d Cir. 2013); Randolph v. IMBS, 368 F.3d 726 (7th Cir. 2004)). A California consumer is routed to the bankruptcy court; a Texas consumer is flagged "unsettled."

Authority relied on. 524(a)(2) (quoted); the three cases named.

If wrong, direction: DD for California if Walls has been narrowed or abrogated (consumer told she has no FDCPA claim when she does).

Ruling: ☐ CONFIRM ☐ STRIKE ☐ MODIFY: _____

Notes

F-4 · FDCPA-UNFAIR-PRACTICES-CATALOG-1692f · Time-barred debt: revival-misrepresentation theory (round 46, in time_barred_debt_note)

Encoded proposition. Collecting a time-barred debt by letter or call is not itself unfair (Midland Funding v. Johnson, 581 U.S. 224 (2017), on proofs of claim; 12 CFR 1006.26(b), quoted, bars only suit or threat of suit). A collection letter that invites a partial payment without disclosing that payment may revive the limitations period under state law is a 1692e misrepresentation (Buchanan v. Northland Group, 776 F.3d 393 (6th Cir. 2015); Pantoja v. Portfolio Recovery Associates, 852 F.3d 679 (7th Cir. 2017)).

Authority relied on. 1006.26(b) (quoted); Midland Funding; Buchanan; Pantoja.

If wrong, direction: OC on the revival theory; DD if the Midland framing is read too broadly (a consumer told "no claim" where a letter did misrepresent enforceability).

Ruling: [] CONFIRM [] STRIKE [] MODIFY: _____

Notes

F-5 · FDCPA-UNFAIR-PRACTICES-CATALOG-1692f · Breach of the peace on self-help repossession (round 46, ledger -06)

Encoded proposition. Catalog item (6) (nonjudicial action to dispossess where there is no present right to possession) is read to include a repossession carried out in breach of the peace -- lock cut, closed garage or fenced yard entered, debtor's contemporaneous objection overridden, force used -- because UCC 9-609(b)(2) conditions the self-help right on proceeding without breach of the peace. The state enactments are NAMED, not quoted.

Authority relied on. 1692f(6) (quoted); UCC 9-609(b)(2) as enacted (Cal. Com. Code 9609; Tex. Bus. & Com. Code 9.609), named.

If wrong, direction: OC (a breach-of-the-peace repossession may be a state-law claim without being a 1692f(6) violation -- courts differ on whether "present right to possession" is lost by the manner of taking).

Ruling: [] CONFIRM [] STRIKE [] MODIFY: _____

Notes

F-6 · FDCPA-FALSE-DECEPTIVE-CATALOG-1692e · Accurate-but-misleading static balance (round 46, ledger -05)

Encoded proposition. Stating a "current balance" on an account where interest or fees are accruing, without saying so, can be a 1692e misrepresentation to the least sophisticated consumer (Avila v. Riexinger & Associates, 817 F.3d 72 (2d Cir. 2016), with its safe-harbor language); no violation where nothing is in fact accruing (Taylor v. Financial Recovery Services, 886 F.3d 212 (2d Cir. 2018); Chuway v. National Action Financial Services, 362 F.3d 944 (7th Cir. 2004), on the other side of the ledger). Encoded as a screening question, not a rule.

Authority relied on. 1692e(2)(A) (quoted); the three cases named.

If wrong, direction: OC.

Ruling: [☐] CONFIRM [☐] STRIKE [☐] MODIFY: _____

Notes

F-7 · FDCPA-FALSE-DECEPTIVE-CATALOG-1692e · Scope of the bona fide error defense (round 46, ledger -06)

Encoded proposition. 15 U.S.C. 1692k(c) (quoted) is a complete defense on the collector's proof of an unintentional violation resulting from a bona fide error despite procedures reasonably adapted to avoid it; it reaches clerical and factual errors, not mistakes of law about what the FDCPA requires (Jerman v. Carlisle, McNellie, Rini, Kramer & Ulrich, 559 U.S. 573 (2010)).

Authority relied on. 1692k(c) (quoted); Jerman.

If wrong, direction: N (a consumer is still told the violation occurred; only the recovery caveat changes).

Ruling: [☐] CONFIRM [☐] STRIKE [☐] MODIFY: _____

Notes

F-8 · FDCPA-COVERAGE-DEBT-COLLECTOR-1692a6 · Government-origin consumer obligations as "debts" (round 43, ledger -06)

Encoded proposition. A municipal water/sewer account, a public-hospital or city ambulance bill, or public tuition is a "debt" under 1692a(5) when a third party collects it, because the obligation arises from a consumer transaction; fines, taxes, and non-consensual assessments are not (Pollice v. National Tax Funding, 225 F.3d 379 (3d Cir. 2000) -- water/sewer yes, taxes no; Piper v. Portnoff Law Associates, 396 F.3d 227 (3d Cir. 2005)).

Authority relied on. 1692a(5) (quoted); Pollice; Piper.

If wrong, direction: OC (a consumer told she has a claim on a municipal obligation a court treats as non-transactional).

Ruling: [] CONFIRM [] STRIKE [] MODIFY: _____

Notes

F-9 · FDCPA-REGF-CALL-FREQUENCY-1006.14b · One-year limitations period runs per call, from the call (round 46, in temporal_screen_note)

Encoded proposition. The 1692k(d) year (quoted) runs from each violation, not from discovery (Rotkiske v. Klemm, 589 U.S. 8 (2019), quoted on the 1692e node), so a call pattern older than a year supports no private federal claim; state statutes (Rosenthal, Tex. Fin. Code ch. 392) may carry longer periods. The Rosenthal period is stated as one year under Civ. Code 1788.30(f) -- NAMED, not fetched.

Authority relied on. 1692k(d) (quoted); Rotkiske (quoted); Civ. Code 1788.30(f) (named).

If wrong, direction: DD if a longer state period exists and the node says "gone."

Ruling: [☐] CONFIRM [☐] STRIKE [☐] MODIFY: _____

CALIFORNIA

Notes

C-1 · CA-SOL-WRITTEN-CONTRACT-DEBT · Contractual choice-of-law clauses and CCP 361 (round 38, ledger -01)

Encoded proposition. Two independent routes can shorten the four-year period for a card debt: (i) CCP 361 (quoted) -- a claim that arose in another state and is barred there is barred here (subject to the California-citizen exception); (ii) a contractual choice-of-law clause selecting a state with a shorter period, which California courts enforce for limitations purposes when the clause is broad enough (Resurgence Financial, LLC v. Chambers, 173 Cal. App. 4th Supp. 1 (2009), applying Delaware's three years). Both are asked; neither is applied automatically.

Authority relied on. CCP 361 (quoted); Resurgence.

If wrong, direction: DD if a shorter period actually applies and the node says four years; OC if Resurgence is read too broadly.

Ruling: [☐] CONFIRM [☐] STRIKE [☐] MODIFY: _____

Notes

C-2 · CA-SOL-WRITTEN-CONTRACT-DEBT · CCP 351 absence tolling, constitutionality (round 38, ledger -03)

Encoded proposition. CCP 351 (quoted) tolls limitations while the defendant is out of state, but the tolling is likely unconstitutional as applied to a defendant whose absence was interstate travel or commerce (Commerce Clause: Abramson v. Brownstein, 897 F.2d 389 (9th Cir. 1990); Heritage Marketing & Insurance Services v. Chrustawka, 160 Cal. App. 4th 754 (2008)); encoded as a caveat, and the node does not add absence days to the deadline automatically.

Authority relied on. CCP 351 (quoted); Abramson; Heritage.

If wrong, direction: DD (a creditor relying on 351 tolling could be timely where the node said expired).

Ruling: [☐] CONFIRM [☐] STRIKE [☐] MODIFY: _____

Notes

C-3 · CA-SOL-WRITTEN-CONTRACT-DEBT · Sister-state judgments must be enforceable where rendered (round 43, ledger -07)

Encoded proposition. A sister-state judgment can be entered under the Sister State Money-Judgments Act (CCP 1710.10 et seq., named) only if it remains enforceable under the rendering state's law (e.g., a Texas judgment dormant under CPRC 34.001 with no revival under 31.006 -- both quoted); the California action on a sister-state judgment has its own ten years under CCP 337.5(b) (quoted). The enforceable-where-rendered requirement rests on full-faith-and-credit case law, not a quoted text; the 1710.40 motion to vacate is the vehicle.

Authority relied on. 337.5(b), 34.001, 31.006 (quoted); 1710.10-1710.40 (named); full-faith-and-credit doctrine (unnamed cases).

If wrong, direction: DD if California entertains a judgment that is dormant elsewhere.

Ruling: [] CONFIRM [] STRIKE [] MODIFY: _____

Notes

C-4 · CA-SOL-WRITTEN-CONTRACT-DEBT · CCP 366.2 and a timely probate creditor's claim (round 43, in deceased_debtor_note)

Encoded proposition. The one-year-from-death bar (366.2, quoted) is not tolled except through the Probate Code creditor-claim procedures listed in 366.2(b); the interaction with a timely-filed claim (Prob. Code 9100, 9352) is flagged, not encoded.

Authority relied on. 366.2(a)-(b) (quoted); Prob. Code 9000 et seq. (named).

If wrong, direction: DD if a filed claim keeps the action alive and the node says barred.

Ruling: ☐ CONFIRM ☐ STRIKE ☐ MODIFY: _____

Notes

C-5 · CA-SOL-ORAL-CONTRACT-DEBT / CA-SOL-WRITTEN · Installment obligations accrue per installment (round 38, ledger ORAL -03; WRITTEN note)

Encoded proposition. Where an obligation is payable in installments and the creditor never accelerated, limitations runs separately from each missed installment; the node asks whether acceleration occurred and does not compute a single bar date for an un-accelerated installment contract.

Authority relied on. General California contract-limitations case law (no single case cited in the note).

If wrong, direction: partial -- DD for the oldest installments if the rule is stated too generously to the debtor; OC otherwise.

Ruling: ☐ CONFIRM ☐ STRIKE ☐ MODIFY: _____

Notes

C-6 · CA-SOL-ORAL-CONTRACT-DEBT · Accrual of a demand loan / loan with no repayment date (round 46, ledger -04)

Encoded proposition. A loan with no time fixed for repayment is payable on demand or within a reasonable time (Civ. Code 1657, named); for a demand loan, accrual is at the making of the loan or, at the latest, at demand and refusal, and a lender cannot postpone accrual indefinitely by never demanding. Encoded as a screening question, not a computed rule.

Authority relied on. Civ. Code 1657 (named); case law unnamed.

If wrong, direction: varies -- DD if accrual is really at demand and the node's "at the loan" branch says expired.

Ruling: [☐] CONFIRM [☐] STRIKE [☐] MODIFY: _____

Notes

C-7 · CA-BANK-ACCOUNT-EXEMPTION · Bank setoff vs. levy; Financial Code 864 (round 46, ledger -04)

Encoded proposition. The 704.220 minimum protects deposits from a JUDGMENT LEVY (CCP 703.010 limits the chapter to enforcement of money judgments, named) and does not govern the depositary bank's own setoff; setoff against a consumer deposit account is limited by Fin. Code 864 (named) -- a floor below which the bank may not set off, notice, and a bar on setting off against directly-deposited public benefits and Social Security. The current 864 figures and whether a violating setoff supports damages are not stated.

Authority relied on. 703.010, Fin. Code 864 (both named, not quoted).

If wrong, direction: DD (a swept account treated as unprotected when 864 gives a remedy).

Ruling: ☐ CONFIRM ☐ STRIKE ☐ MODIFY: _____

Notes

C-8 · CA-BANK-ACCOUNT-EXEMPTION · Non-debtor spouse's account and Fam. Code 910/911 (round 46, ledger -06)

Encoded proposition. Community property -- including the debtor spouse's wages deposited in an account in the non-debtor spouse's sole name -- is liable for a debt incurred by either spouse during marriage (Fam. Code 910, named); the non-debtor spouse's own earnings are shielded from the other spouse's PREMARITAL debts if kept in an account the debtor spouse cannot withdraw from (911, named); the 720.110 third-party claim is not the first answer for a spouse. 703.020(b)(2) lets the spouse claim community exemptions.

Authority relied on. Fam. Code 910, 911 (named); CCP 703.020 (quoted on the vehicle node, (b)(2) named).

If wrong, direction: OC (overstates creditor reach) if 910 is narrower than stated.

Ruling: ☐ CONFIRM ☐ STRIKE ☐ MODIFY: _____

Notes

C-9 · CA-HOMESTEAD-EXEMPTION · Temporary absence vs. loss of continuous residence (round 46, in continuous_residence_requirement_note)

Encoded proposition. 704.710(c) (quoted) requires residence at lien attachment and continuously thereafter; a relocation, move to a relative's home, or entry into assisted living with the house rented out defeats the automatic homestead, while short, temporary absences (hospitalization, brief deployment) are tolerated by case law. A recorded DECLARED homestead (704.910 et seq., named) is treated differently and is not encoded.

Authority relied on. 704.710(c) (quoted); case law on temporary absence (unnamed); 704.910 (named).

If wrong, direction: DD if the tolerance for absence is broader than stated (a debtor told the exemption is lost when it is not).

Ruling: [☐] CONFIRM [☐] STRIKE [☐] MODIFY: _____

TEXAS

Notes

T-1 · TX-DEFAULT-JUDGMENT-SET-ASIDE-DISCRETIONARY · Restricted appeal and bill of review scope (round 38, ledger -02)

Encoded proposition. A restricted appeal (Tex. R. App. P. 30, named) within six months and a bill of review (four years) are not limited to defective-service cases; a restricted appeal reaches any error apparent on the face of the record, and a bill of review reaches extrinsic fraud, official mistake, or lack of service, each with its own showing. Peralta v. Heights Medical Center, 485 U.S. 80 (1988), for the no-service case.

Authority relied on. TRAP 30 (named); Peralta; bill-of-review case law (unnamed).

If wrong, direction: DD if a route is overstated (a defendant sent down a path that is closed).

Ruling: [☐] CONFIRM [☐] STRIKE [☐] MODIFY: _____

Notes

T-2 · TX-DEFAULT-JUDGMENT-SET-ASIDE-DISCRETIONARY · Justice court: no 306a restart, no restricted appeal; bill of review (round 46, ledger -04)

Encoded proposition. The general Rules of Civil Procedure apply in justice court only when the judge so orders or a rule says so (TRCP 500.3(e), named), so TRCP 306a's late-notice restart does not apply; the restricted appeal lies only from district and county court judgments; a justice-court defendant who learns of the judgment after the 14-day motion and 21-day de novo appeal windows is left with equitable relief, and whether and where a bill of review lies from a justice-court judgment is flagged for counsel.

Authority relied on. TRCP 500.3(e) (named); TRCP 505.3 and 506.1(a) (quoted); TRAP 30 (named).

If wrong, direction: DD (a justice-court defendant told both windows are closed when a restart exists).

Ruling: ☐ CONFIRM ☐ STRIKE ☐ MODIFY: _____

Notes

T-3 · TX-SOL-CONSUMER-DEBT · Diligence in service after timely filing (round 46, ledger -05)

Encoded proposition. Limitations is measured to the FILING date (CPRC 16.004(a), quoted), provided the plaintiff then exercises diligence in obtaining service; a long, unexplained gap between filing and service can forfeit the filing date. Stated as a caveat; not computed.

Authority relied on. 16.004(a) (quoted); diligence-in-service case law (unnamed).

If wrong, direction: OC (the node defaults to "timely if filed in time").

Ruling: ☐ CONFIRM ☐ STRIKE ☐ MODIFY: _____

Notes

T-4 · TX-SOL-CONSUMER-DEBT · Choice-of-law clauses and limitations (round 46, ledger -06)

Encoded proposition. Texas has no general borrowing statute for contract claims (the Stage B finding's citation to CPRC 16.066 was checked and is the foreign-judgment rule); Texas courts traditionally treat limitations as procedural and apply Texas's four years despite a substantive choice-of-law clause, though some courts apply the chosen state's shorter period where the clause expressly reaches limitations. Encoded as: default to four years, flag the clause, refer.

Authority relied on. 16.066(a)-(b) (quoted, for what it is NOT); procedural/substantive case law (unnamed).

If wrong, direction: DD if a shorter chosen-state period applies and the node says four years.

Ruling: [☐] CONFIRM [☐] STRIKE [☐] MODIFY: _____

Notes

T-5 · TX-SOL-CONSUMER-DEBT · Accrual date on a revolving account (round 46, ledger -07)

Encoded proposition. On a credit card, limitations accrues at default/acceleration (charge-off or demand for the full balance), not at the last payment; some courts fix it at the first missed payment. The node collects all three dates and computes from each rather than choosing.

Authority relied on. 16.004(a) (quoted); accrual case law (unnamed).

If wrong, direction: DD if accrual is really at the first missed payment and the node's charge-off branch says timely.

Ruling: ☐ CONFIRM ☐ STRIKE ☐ MODIFY: _____

Notes

T-6 · TX-SOL-CONSUMER-DEBT · Installment obligations accrue per installment (round 38, ledger -03)

Encoded proposition. Same proposition as C-5, for Texas.

Authority relied on. Texas contract-limitations case law (unnamed).

If wrong, direction: partial (see C-5).

Ruling: ☐ CONFIRM ☐ STRIKE ☐ MODIFY: _____

Notes

T-7 · TX-WAGE-GARNISHMENT-PROHIBITION · Contractual alimony vs. Chapter 8 maintenance (round 38, ledger -04)

Encoded proposition. The constitutional exception to the wage-garnishment bar (Tex. Const. art. XVI, sec. 28, quoted) for "spousal maintenance" reaches court-ordered maintenance under Family Code chapter 8; purely CONTRACTUAL alimony agreed in a divorce decree but not ordered as chapter 8 maintenance is an ordinary contract debt and does not qualify. Encoded as a screening question.

Authority relied on. art. XVI, sec. 28 (quoted); Fam. Code ch. 8 (named); case law on contractual alimony (unnamed).

If wrong, direction: OC (a payor told wages cannot be garnished for contractual alimony when they can).

Ruling: ☐ CONFIRM ☐ STRIKE ☐ MODIFY: _____

Notes

T-8 · TX-EXEMPT-PERSONAL-PROPERTY · Independent-contractor receivables are not "current wages" (round 38, ledger -04)

Encoded proposition. The "current wages for personal service" protection (Prop. Code 42.001(b)(1), quoted) covers employee wages; payments owed to an independent contractor are accounts receivable, reachable by garnishment or turnover, subject to the contractor's other exemptions. The employee/contractor line is encoded as a screening question.

Authority relied on. 42.001(b)(1) (quoted); case law on the personal-service line (unnamed).

If wrong, direction: DD if Texas courts treat some contractor compensation as "current wages" and the node says fully reachable.

Ruling: ☐ CONFIRM ☐ STRIKE ☐ MODIFY: _____

Notes

T-9 · TX-HOMESTEAD-EXEMPTION · Lien attached before homestead character (round 46, ledger -08)

Encoded proposition. Homestead protection is measured as of the time the creditor's lien attached; a judgment lien that validly attached while the property was a non-exempt rental is not divested when the debtor later moves in and impresses homestead character. Encoded as a screening question; the 52.0012 affidavit route does not clear such a lien.

Authority relied on. Prop. Code 52.001 et seq. (named); attachment-timing case law (unnamed).

If wrong, direction: OC (overstates the creditor's lien) if Texas treats a later homestead as superior.

Ruling: [☐] CONFIRM [☐] STRIKE [☐] MODIFY: _____

Not on this list, and why

• TX-HOMESTEAD abandonment vs. temporary absence (round 38): anchored to Prop. Code 41.003 in round 39.

• Article III standing for technical violations (round 38): anchored to the quoted TransUnion syllabus.

• FDCPA one-year limitations from the violation (round 38): anchored to the quoted Rotkiske holding (F-9 above is the narrower open question of the state-law periods).

• Turnover of already-paid wages (round 38): anchored to CPRC 31.0025(a).

• Rosenthal Act reaches original creditors (round 38): anchored to Civ. Code 1788.2(c)/1788.17.

Johnson, 581 U.S. 224 (2017) also resolves; the remaining U.S. Reports citations (Jerman, Peralta, Rotkiske, TransUnion, Duguid) are standard and were not re-queried. Resolution confirms the citation exists and names the case; it does NOT confirm the proposition attributed to it -- that is what the CONFIRM ruling means. One named provision remains doubted (Fam. Code 8.106 on TX-WAGE; POST_V1_BACKLOG row 1).

After the session

Rulings are transcribed into `rules/debt/validation/stage_b_dispositions.json` (a `counsel_ruling` field on each gloss entry) and applied as v1.1 content edits in a single patch, which is the first of the two gates for Phase LOCK item 5.
